FROM THE ALUMNI RELATIONS COORDINATOR

Dear Alumni,

Despite the short month that February is, it was a long week for many who had to deal with the cold and snow, no heat or electricity, so no internet and then the water problems. It felt like Coleridge's comment in "Rime of the Ancient Mariner:" "Water, water everywhere nor any drop to drink." If you are having issues with anything mentioned, Nolan Catholic is here to help. You'll find other alumni who can help you with your needs on the Facebook Nolan Alum Biz Page.

The annual auction and dinner, themed "Heart & Soul" this year, successfully raised (net) over $112,000. Thank you for all your support before and during the auction. Many alumni responded with auction items and there were many who participated in the virtual auction. In addition to the monies raised, everyone had a good time.

Black History Week was celebrated at Nolan Catholic. Members of the Culture Vikings club educated us on the influence of the Black culture past, present and future.

Our Alumni Business Spotlight this month is dbaileygroup owned by Denice Galier Bailey '84. Denice invites you to have a cup of coffee with her to discuss strategic marketing and public relations for your business.

If you'd like a personal tour of the new and the improved facilities at Nolan Catholic, please contact me.

Windy and warmer days are in the forecast. Spring Break and Easter are not too far away. I'm looking forward to all of that and imagine that you are, too.

Stay in touch! Continue the relationship!

Pat

Denice (Galier) Bailey, Class of 1984

Businesses today need to define their target audience and present a solid brand coupled with a strategic marketing direction - and they need it done in a timely, cost-effective way. That's where I come in.

Whether my clients need support for their existing marketing departments or an entirely "off-site" marketing team; I'm here to bring a wide range of resources and years of expertise to the table. Ours is a customized - not an off-the-shelf - marketing strategy that never fails to exceed expectations.

Currently living in the greater Dallas/Fort Worth area and a member of the class of 1984, I'm the founder and principal of dbaileygroup, llc. As a full-service marketing and public relations firm of over 20 years, I offer clients a wide range of solutions to ensure their needs and objectives are met.

Whether your needs are to identify and secure new clients, deepen your current client relationships, or to stand-out from the competition, I will listen to you and partner with you to define your goals and objectives, then strive to develop solutions that don't just reach these goals, but exceed them.

My experience in marketing research, traditional and digital marketing, public relations and graphic design solutions will be the foundation for your success. Because the true measure of my success lies not in the recognition and awards received, but in the effectiveness of the solutions developed and executed for your specific requirements and your continued satisfaction.

Want to learn more? How about a cup of coffee, via virtually? I'd welcome the opportunity to visit with you in greater detail.

I'll get the coffee brewing.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

As we celebrate Black History Month, we focus on loving our neighbors and understanding how cultural diversity is a beautiful part of God's plan. Our Black History Week was organized by Culture Vikes, a club that celebrates how our diversity enriches our lives and reminds us that we are united as a universal Catholic Church. We will donate the proceeds from our Jeans Day on 2/25 to the MLK Committee to celebrate the annual Diocesan Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Mass and to the Knights of Peter Claver Unit #89.
